

SEET MANIFESTO

Seeking Employment, Education, or Training

We were so sure this was the cycle.

Phantom wallets full, memes strong, conviction unshakable.

We called ourselves early, visionary – “builders.”

Then Solana went down. Again.

And so did our portfolios.

Now, we SEET.

SEET isn't just a coin – it's a confession.

For everyone who thought “this time I retire,”

and now just wants to reapply.

We no longer chase 100x pumps –

we chase steady paychecks and 401(k) matching.

We clock in, not ~~lock in~~.

We crunch spreadsheets like we once crunched charts.

We inhale the sweet scent of fresh-printed paper and call it copium with benefits.

Our new roadmap is simple:

Employment. Education. Training.

Now we measure gains in life skills, not tokens.

We are SEET.

Proud office warriors, spreadsheet samurais,

worshippers of the photocopier's warm glow.
